

STAKEHOLDERS' FEEDBACK AND ACTION TAKEN REPORT

AY2017-18

REPORT STAKEHOLDERS SATISFACTION ON THE PERFORMANCE OF IQAC

Scope and objective

Office of the Chairman conducted an annual survey on Stakeholders Evaluation of IQAC Effectiveness. The objective of the survey is to evaluate the effectiveness of IQAC in delivering its responsibilities. This evaluation helps to recognize the strengths of IQAC and identify the areas that need improvement, which ultimately helps in 'closing the loop' and ensures that the quality and excellence is achieved.

Survey Methodology

The survey was revised in the current year considering the increasing role and responsibilities of IQAC. The survey was designed by IQAC using Google forms and approved and administered by the office of the Dean Academics. The Question responses were collected on a 4-point Likert type scale with lowest 1-Needs Improvement to highest 4-Substantially Exceeds my expectations. The survey was active for 1 month. The survey statements covered IQAC services for the accreditation process, strategic planning, program performance monitoring and management, reporting on performance and perception indicators, setting benchmarks, quality and reliability of data collection and reporting instruments, contribution towards excellence awards, etc. The survey was analyzed by IQAC.

Sample Size and Response Rate

The survey was distributed to 36 key stakeholders of IQAC to assess their perception of the effectiveness of IQAC in delivering its services to them. 29 out of 36 stakeholders have responded to the survey resulting in a response rate of 81%.

Findings:

- An overall satisfaction rate of 72.23% is achieved by IQAC across all 13 survey statements.
- 93% of the stakeholders are satisfied with IQAC's participation in various Excellence Projects / Awards
- 86% of the stakeholders are satisfied with the IQAC's participation in the program accreditation process & competency and courteousness of IQAC staff in performing their duties.

Areas for Improvement:

- It is observed that 24% of the stakeholders feel that the Contribution of IQAC to the University's strategic planning processes & Initiative in generating reliable institutional data needs improvement.
- 28% of the stakeholders want to see improvement in the data collection process and preparation of analytical reports.
- 31% of the stakeholders feel that the Quality of institutional effectiveness documents prepared by IQAC needs improvement.
- The below results also show that 34% of the stakeholders want to see improvement in Developing, monitoring and evaluating the outcome measures, Conducting institutional research in support of institutional effectiveness & role of IQAC in setting Benchmarks.
- 38% of the stakeholders feel that improvement is needed in Developing quality instruments used in evaluation & timely distribution of data and reports.
- 41% of the stakeholders want to see improvement in IQAC's performance in monitoring and implementation of improvement plans (closing the loop)

Recommendations:

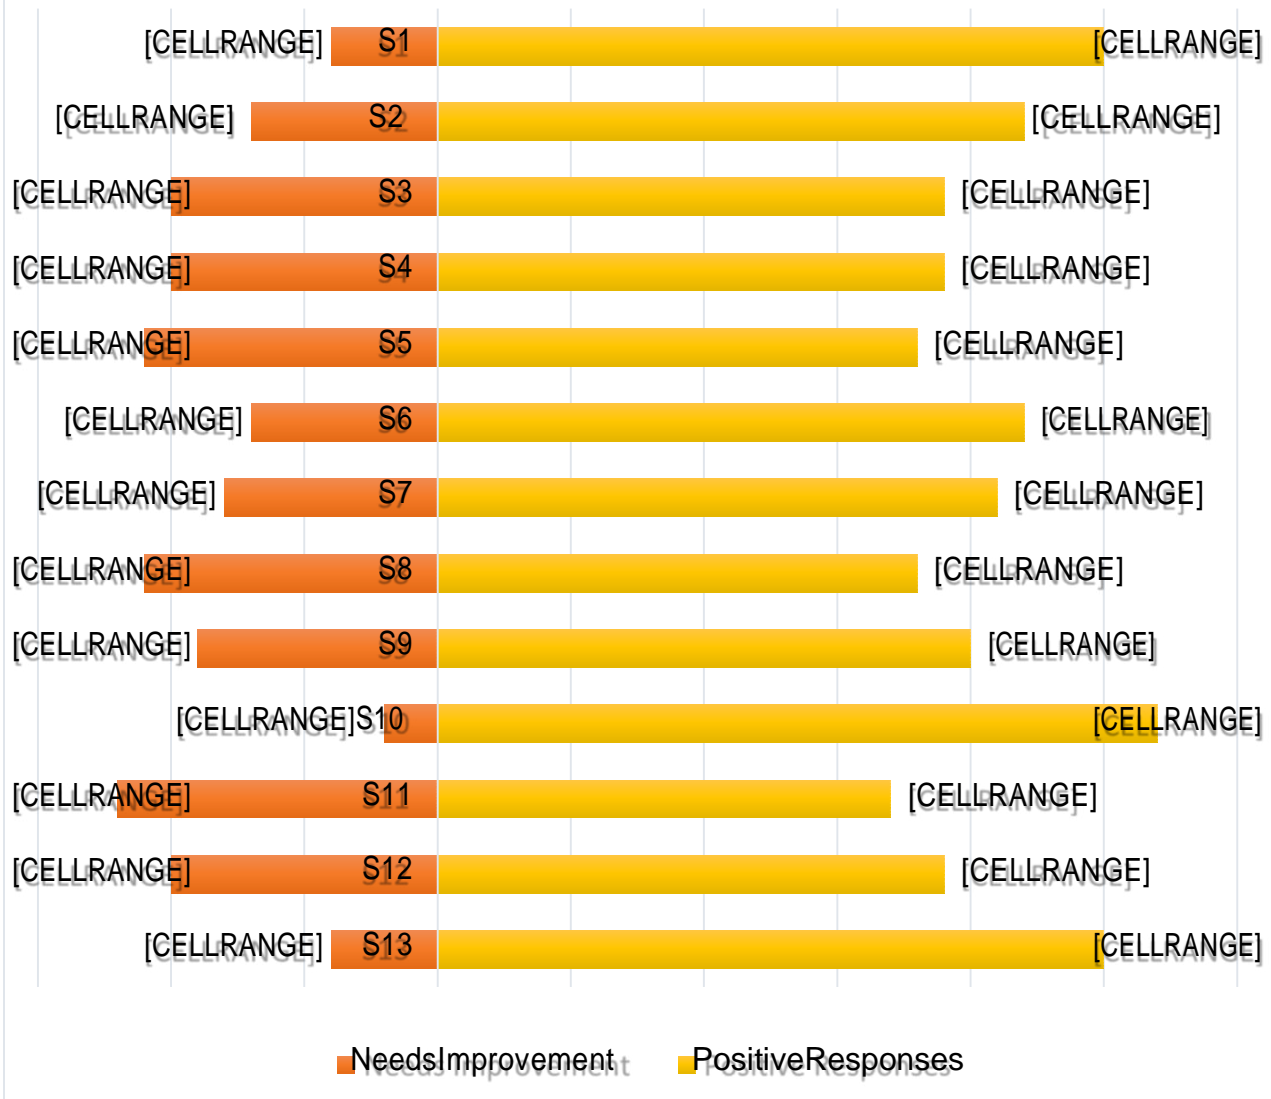

IQAC is recommended to submit an action plan report to the management describing its plans to address the areas identified with lower stakeholder satisfaction.

What do you like most about IQAC?

- Active participation in comprehensive quality assurance system
- Approachable, good, Perfect Coordination, Committed & ready to take ownership
- Their cooperation and perfect work
- They are doing duties which require specific skills that are not available in Colleges
- The staff are very courteous and prompt in communication
- I think it is both good and important that this role is separated for delivery and management
- Dedicated staff working in usual constraints
- Sincerely working on the same task without any hesitancy.
- Data maintenance
- They are dedicated, punctual and keen to help and support they are available and reachable
- Performance in monitoring and implementation of improvement plans
- They are very helpful and friendly.
- Timely response
- Organization of the work
- Working hard with the less manual support
- Follow-ups with various departments to complete the project or tasks on time
- Dedication to work at hand
- The staff are very much approachable and friendly
- Their role in standard setting

Suggestions for Improvement & Action taken by IQAC

S1. Workload calculation of faculty needs major revision.

S2. Please try to avoid repeated activity due to document updates every now and then

S3 Repetition in asking the same data should be avoided.

Action Taken by IQAC: Faculty workload calculation task was assigned to IQAC for the first time in AY 2017-18. IQAC has defined and implemented the following initiatives.

- A well-defined faculty workload data collection process is established.
- Communication framework with the colleges and faculty has been established to ensure accurate data collection.
- Effective data collection templates are designed.
- Effective workload calculation templates are designed considering the CAA standards and criteria.

S4. Submission of reports on time

S5. IQAC needs to have more automation in the processes/evaluations to generate effective, useful and applicable reports so that necessary changes can be implemented to increase institutional effectiveness

Action Taken by IQAC: IQAC is taking an initiative to administer all surveys using online application in a phased manner.

- IQAC staff is currently undergoing a self-led training program currently and will be taking up an instructor-led training in October.
- The training is intended primarily to address the issues responsible in non-acceptance of Blue reports and non-usability of the Blue product although it was implemented in 2014 and secondly to effectively use the application for all GMU surveys.

S6. Has to work towards its actual purpose and goals. Needs more dynamic workforce with health education background.

Action Taken by IQAC:

- IQAC responsibilities and guidelines to accomplish these responsibilities is well defined in Institutional Effectiveness Manual, IQAC annual report and IQAC strategic plan. IQAC has developed an activity planner in line with IQAC responsibilities as stated by CAA.
- IQAC has staff with experience in Hospital and health systems management. One of the Staff members has experience with health and hospital consultants for both public & private sector and with health education sector.

S7. We need a more dedicated qualified person for each College.

Action Taken by IQAC:

- IQAC has a well-defined system of task delegation among the team members to promote project ownership, transparency and accountability for the tasks. IQAC holds a daily morning meet to ensure tasks are completed on a priority basis and are assigned in alignment with the competency area of the team member.

S8. We would like the IQAC to provide us with a bank of tools and instruments to collect data. We would like to decentralize the process, conduct smaller surveys such as individual course assessment in programs at the level of the program office and provide the data to IQAC for analysis. IQAC can analyze and generate the reports. This will speed up the process and make it more efficient.

Action Taken by IQAC:

- IQAC is currently working on the online Survey administration project.
- Once the project is successfully administered at IQAC level as an administrator of Blue, IQAC team will be training the college faculty and staff in conducting surveys at their level.

S9. IQAC needs to have more automation in the processes/evaluations to generate effective, useful and applicable reports so that necessary changes can be implemented to increase institutional effectiveness

S10. Develop a database for each program to help in collecting required data quickly

S11. Conducting more research in support of institutional effectiveness

S12. Concentrate for the institutional effectiveness only

S13. Create a policy on data integrity

S14. I think there is a lot of collection of data, but a greater need to filter it and focus on the quality of the instruments. I cannot know for sure, but it feels like a system that is tried and tested, but which hasn't changed significantly for quite a while. I would consider it important to reflect upon

- a) Which are the key performance measures, and
- b) What are the best ways of collecting data to give us a triangulated insight?

Action Taken by IQAC:

- The GMU IT manager and LMS Administrator are already working on the project of having an integrated university management system. The new system is expected to address most of the data quality issues including data integrity and will provide a centralized data source for IQAC and colleges. Lack of such an integrated system to date had been the main challenge pertaining to data quality and integrity for IQAC and colleges. IQAC has already developed its requirements documentation and discussed with the GMU IT manager and LMS Administrator.

- IQAC reports are reviewed at multiple levels such as by a co-member and by Director IQAC to ensure error-free reports are delivered to our stakeholders.
- IQAC has incorporated many innovations in its reports during AY 2017-18.

S15. To include members from each program as a committee member in IQAC to improve the program effectiveness. To ensure the validity and reliability of the data before circulation or judgment. To conduct group discussion with the department staff circle and Subject Experts

Action Taken by IQAC:

- IQAC is planning to have a monthly meeting with the college representatives to discuss issues faced with institutional research data and reporting. The platform will help in enhancing communication and understanding the client requirements better by IQAC. The platform will help in the following ways
- The platform will also facilitate in validating and reviewing all official documents produced by IQAC and College before submission for approval to management.
- Designing, approving & validating survey questionnaires.

- Identifying key performance indicators pertaining to all areas.
- Defining Benchmarks
- Monitoring the academic & administrative performance collectively.
- The platform can encourage innovation through ideas from members.
- Ensure closing of the loop.

S16. IQAC should concentrate on improving the quality of each program and help in each program accreditation rather focusing on awards which are the responsibility of the corporates.

Action Taken by IQAC:

- IQAC has played a significant role in helping colleges with their accreditation process by providing analytical reports for both perception (surveys) and performance indicators.
- IQAC has reviewed Self-study reports of programs and provided a report recommending improvements.

S17. To produce gap analysis reports every semester to ensure the program effectiveness.

Action Taken by IQAC:

- IQAC produces annually institutional effectiveness report which highlights the trends in the performance of indicators. The trends presented in the report guide to identify the causes for a decreasing or increasing trend and implement necessary actions for improvement.
- IQAC develops course effectiveness report which highlights student performance in the course and program across fall, spring and summer semesters hence providing the basis for decision making with regards to the improvement needed in the performance of the course and the program at large.

S18. Ensure constant monitoring of the status of the strategic plans proposed by each college and facilitate it.

Action Taken by IQAC:

- IQAC has developed an annual review report of the strategic plan and operational plan of the university under the guidance of the Chancellor. The IQAC monthly meeting with each college as described above will serve as an important platform to monitor and track progress with an operational and strategic plan of each college. IQAC is committed to extending its support in facilitating documentation of both plans for our most important stakeholders (colleges).

S19. Updating the faculties about the advance quality indicators. Conducting workshops/seminar to improve the effectiveness of the program to meet the university vision and mission.

Action Taken by IQAC:

- IQAC is planning for a Workshop on Quality Indicators. The workshop aims at creating awareness among faculty and staff on the different performance and perception indicators used in performance management at GMU. The workshop will also include discussion on the importance of internal and External Benchmarking and the methodology to be adopted in benchmarking.

S20. Need to improve their language of reporting, to deliver an authentic analysis report in a timely manner useful to colleges, to follow established protocol. Must be more proactive

Action Taken by IQAC:

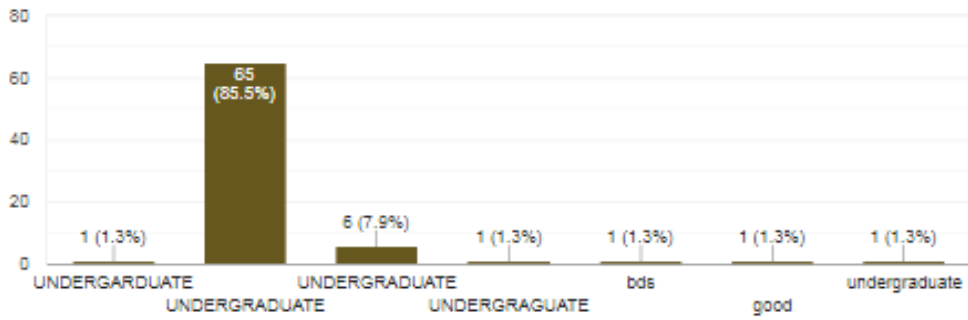

- IQAC will be using Explorance Blue for survey design administration and reporting from Fall2018.
- Comments from the stakeholders on quality of IQAC analytical report have been critically reviewed and incorporated in IQAC practices. For example, the preciseness of reports. Stakeholders will be requested to provide requirements documentation from Fall 2018 before an analytical report is developed by IQAC. This will help IQAC in planning priorities, focusing client satisfaction and increasing productivity across the department.
- AY 2017-18 was very demanding as it was the year of transformation. IQAC had a big role to play in terms of facilitating colleges for self-study reports, program effectiveness reports, surveys, and evaluations.
- IQAC collaborated with colleges in the revision of survey Questionnaires (University services survey, Graduate Exit survey, etc.)
- IQAC developed Moodle platform for Course & faculty evaluations for the first time since Fall 2017. Further most survey platforms were developed by IQAC without dependence on IT.
- IQAC was actively involved in the development of strategic plan documentation and annual review report on Strategic and operational plan progress.
